

REFEREE AWARD – SERVICE IN OFFICIATING NOMINATION CRITERIA

The Award period for the 2023 Tennis NSW Awards is September 2022 – August 2023.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for consideration the nominee must be a current Tennis Australia Officials member, be 18 years or over at the beginning of the Award period and be an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection panel will consider the following in assessing nominations:

- The outstanding contributions to local and state tennis officiating in New South Wales through their dedication, skill, attitude, and knowledge.
- Performances that set them apart from their peers in New South Wales
- Respect and courtesy shown to and by the players to the nominee
- Being a positive role model for other tennis officials
- Nominee's commitment to Officiating in New South Wales
- The nominee's roles and responsibilities at their club/centre
- The nominee's contribution to their club and/or community including involvement in events and activities which drive greater participation in competitive play

SELECTION PROCESS

Only information provided in the nomination forms and the supporting information attached to the submission will be considered by the selection panel. For nomination forms and relevant supporting information to be considered, nominators must submit the nomination form through the online platform. Supporting documentation can be submitted via the online form as well as one (1) high-resolution photo of the nominee.

Tennis NSW reserves the right to submit nominations for each award category.

The selection panel in its absolute discretion will determine all decisions in relation to the 2023 Tennis NSW Awards (including any questions in relation to eligibility). All decisions are final, and no correspondence will be entered.

Tennis NSW reserves the right to not award a recipient in any given category if the nominations submitted do not meet the nomination requirements.
