KEY ELEMENTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL NEVILLE BONNER AWARD APPLICATION

Element	Description
Period of contribution
Duration	Contribution evidenced for at least three years (two for Early Career)
Sustained	Demonstrates critical reflection and ethos of continuous improvement and development throughout duration of contribution
Impact on student learning, student engagement or the overall student experience
Impact	Convincingly demonstrates authentic and consequential relationships between the activities described and improvement of outcomes for students. Impact extends to peers within and outside the institution.
Award type	Nature of activity and outcomes for students align with the relevant category of the award type. For Teaching Awards , activities must include excellent leadership.
Context/significance	Context clearly defined to identify factors relevant to development of the contribution, and to demonstrate its outstanding merit, quality and impact.
Innovation	Contribution is a creative, imaginative, or innovative approach that uniquely suits the context.
Philosophy of teaching or practice	Philosophy an articulate statement of theoretical and pedagogical reflection that indicates a critically reflective approach to practice.
Scholarship	Literature referenced clearly demonstrates the significance and implications of the contribution within its context, including Indigenous contexts , and convincingly explains and supports the underlying philosophy and activities. Author's own scholarship likely included.
Evidence
Relevance	Evidence comprehensively substantiates the sustained nature and merit of the contribution. Evidence (including that provided in appendices) is powerfully integrated with specific claims.
Diversity of sources	Qualitative and quantitative evidence from an extensive range of formal and informal sources, including nominee's self-reflection, student learning, student experience, Indigenous co-creators and Indigenous community experts and evidence of institutional, peer and stakeholder interactions, including Indigenous stakeholders .
Credibility and Recognition	Evidence consistently triangulated across several sources. Impact and innovation of contribution recognised by individuals and associations. Quotations of recognition from individuals with highly relevant experience and status, from within Australia and ideally internationally.
Narrative
Critical reflection	Narrative clearly and consistently demonstrates a critically reflective approach to practice.
Cohesion	Narrative weaves philosophy, evidence, examples of impact on students, and any supplemental materials into an elegant, coherent and focused submission. For teams, narrative elegantly expresses individual roles and synergies of the team, including the role of Indigenous community co-creators or stakeholders .
Examples	Examples are discerningly selected to clearly illustrate the teacher and student behaviours that constitute the contribution and to compellingly support claims of substantial student outcomes.
Author's voice	Author's voice distinctive, confident and authentic throughout, conveying self-awareness and personal investment in the unique approach to the contribution. For teams, author's voice elegantly and coherently represents the team and/or individual members.
Student voice	Student voices, through examples and quotations, convey a cogent account of their experiences.

Element	Description
Structure	Division into the required sections is appropriate and produces a clear and compelling narrative. Conclusion elegantly draws elements of narrative together to provide a cohesive and powerful ending.
Reference letters
Content	References demonstrate familiarity with the contribution and context, providing strong endorsement of the claims and additional evidence relating to context, merit and impact on students.
Second referee	Second referee eminently qualified to comment on broader impact of the contribution based on relevant professional or personal expertise and standing. Provides strong endorsement on the merit of the contribution from an independent perspective inside/outside of the university. Indigenous co-creators and community cultural experts may be included.
