

RELATIONSHIP BASED EDUCATION

LIFE IS RELATIONAL

THE KEY TO QUALITY EDUCATION
IS BUILDING QUALITY
RELATIONSHIPS

This e-conference is suitable for parents and schools

E-Conference
24th October 2022
10.00am-1.00pm

Parents  Victoria

Register Here for
E-Conference
24th October 2022

E-Conference Program

10.00 am - 10.45 am

Conference Official Opening

Minister for Education, Natalie Hutchins

Parents Victoria will ask the Minister - "Life is relational - why do relationships matter in schools?"

10.45 am - 12.00 pm

Relationships - The What, Why & How

10.45

The What - Relationship based Education (RbE)

John Hendry OAM and Gail McHardy, CEO, Parents Victoria

11.00

The Why - What teachers need to know and how RbE can help

Kristin Reimer, Ph.D. Senior Lecturer, Restorative Justice and Relational Pedagogies, School of Education, Culture and Society, Faculty of Education, Monash University

11.15

The How - We'll hear from schools who are implementing RbE

Why they chose RbE; the process for their school; the impacts and outcomes so far

Ocean Grove Primary School

Scott McCumber, Principal

Andy McNeilly, Mental Health & Wellbeing Coordinator

Prahran High School

Nathan Chisholm, Principal

Shannan Roberts, Assistant Principal

Parent guest

12.00 noon - 12.30 pm

On-the-couch discussion

Panel discussion to respond to questions from conference delegates (questions to be submitted via Zoom webinar chat box)

John Hendry, Kristin Reimer, guest school representatives (as above)

12.30 PV Annual General Meeting

12.55

Wrap up and Call to Action (Victorian State Election is only one month away!)

Participants are invited to post questions, comments, feedback in the Zoom chat box

1.00 Conference Close

Relationship based Education

a John Hendry initiative in partnership with Parents Victoria

Want a brief summary of Relationship based Education to share with colleagues and friends?

Download our 2-page flyer with a basic rundown of the program and philosophy behind it, success stories from school leaders and contact details.

Download Flyer Now

Pre-conference reading material

Visit RbE website

