

SPIRITUAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING

– its presence and impact in the lives of people with intellectual disability

Tuesday 26 October 2021
10.30am – 12.00pm

Pastoral care forms an important part of a holistic approach to accompanying people who face significant life challenges. However very little attention is paid to the spiritual needs of people with intellectual disability despite this being a vitally important aspect to living well.

This symposium will explore the role and impact of pastoral care as it promotes and advances the understanding of the inherent dignity of people with disability.

Join an expert panel as it discusses how pastoral care beneficially informs the provision of a range of services within Accord and how this approach can potentially inspire the broader health and community services in new and unexpected ways.

---

Guest Speakers:

Winsome Clark

researcher with University of Divinity and practising psychologist: what contributes to spiritual health and wellbeing within the residential care setting.

Lisa Evans

Chief Executive Officer
St John of God Accord

Josh Lourensz

Executive Director,
Catholic Social Services Victoria.

*As a part of Pastoral/Spiritual Care Week 2021,
Spiritual Health and Wellbeing
the vital role of pastoral care is brought to you by Catholic Social Services Victoria and St John of God Accord, a major provider of services and accommodation to people with disability .*

To register click here:

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUUBW>

Venue: via Zoom [link provided on registration]