Responsibilities under Criminal Code Act 1899 (Qld) – all Adults

In addition to the reporting requirements under the Child Protection Act 1999 and Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, all adults (inclusive of parents/guardians, volunteers and students 18 years or older) also have obligations under the Criminal Code Act 1899 to report to police information relating to child sexual offenses should they have reasonable belief that an adult has committed a child sexual offence.

The Criminal Code Act 1899 includes two offences that pertain to the failure to report a child sexual offence and the failure to protect a child against a child sexual offence. A child sexual offence is an offence of a sexual nature by an adult against a child under 16 years or a person with an impairment of the mind.

Failure to Report<sup>15</sup>

Under section 229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899, all adults, inclusive of parents/guardians, volunteers and students 18 years or older must report sexual offences against a child by another adult to police as soon as reasonably practicable after the belief is, or ought reasonably to have been, formed. Failure to make a report, without a reasonable excuse, is a criminal offence. A reasonable excuse not to make a report under the Criminal Code Act 1899 includes that a report has already been made under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (reporting sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse) and the Child Protection Act 1999 (reporting significant harm or risk of significant harm) as per this policy.

Failure to Protect<sup>16</sup>

Under section 229BB of the Criminal Code Act 1899, all adults (inclusive of parents/guardians, volunteers and students 18 years or older) in positions of power or responsibility within institutions to reduce or remove the risk of child sexual offences being committed must take reasonable steps to protect children in their care from a child sexual offence. A failure to protect is an offence. All adults (inclusive of, but not limited to parents/guardians, volunteers and students 18 years or older) will commit an offence if:

- a) the adult knows there is a significant risk that another adult (the alleged offender) will commit a child sexual offence in relation to a child; and
- b) the alleged offender is associated with the school (or another institution) or is a regulated volunteer; and
- c) the child is under the care, supervision or control of the school; and
- d) the child is under 16 years or is a person with an impairment of the mind; and
- e) the adult has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk; and
- f) the adult wilfully or negligently fails to reduce or remove the risk.

If in doubt, always assume that a matter is reportable.
