

The Queensland State Committee is proud to present the Preparation for Practice Workshop – Queensland

Avant Mutual Office

Level 18/345 Queen Street, Brisbane City QLD

Saturday 5 and Sunday 6 November 2022

Purpose

The two-day workshop will provide Younger Fellows, final year Trainees and Practice Managers information on practical skills, tips and advice for setting up private practice. The focus is on practicality and experience provided by fellow surgeons, consultant speakers and Industry. Participants will also have the chance to speak to Fellows who have experience in starting up private practice.

As a part of this workshop, we will also host a dinner at Navala located at the Riverside Centre, 123 Eagle St, Brisbane City for all registrants and partners on Saturday 5 2022 at 6:30pm.

Who should attend?

Younger Fellows and final year Trainees from all specialties who are considering setting up private practice will benefit from attending this two-day workshop. Practice Managers and Partners are also welcomed to register (note: priority will be given to RACS members).

What will you learn?

- Understand matters involved for setting up private practice
- Acquire strategies and tools for practice operations
- Develop practice framework and improve practice performance

CPD for Fellows
