Canterbury Initiative General Practitioner Education Session

Tuesday 23 May 2023, 7-8pm

Assisted Dying

Assisted Dying (AD) became legal in New Zealand with the passing of the End of Life Choice Act 2019. Regardless of one's personal view, healthcare practitioners have specific obligations under the law and need to understand the legislation and know how to respond. This webinar aims to provide clarity around these obligations. We will also discuss how assisted dying is operating in practice New Zealand wide and Canterbury specifically.

Join our panel of presenters:

- Manu Pelayo - Principal Clinical Advisor, Assisted Dying Service, Te Whatu Ora
- Sarah Marr, General Practitioner, Halswellhealth, Christchurch
- Frank Kueppers, Urologist, Urology Associates, Christchurch

Topics for discussion include:

- Overview of the Act and service, including national data
- Responding to requests
  - clinician responsibilities
  - practice or service responsibilities
- Referral pathways
- Clinician perspectives of Assisted Dying in practice
